

Al Baldwin

2008 – 2015

ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Al Baldwin received a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern California. He and his wife, Deeann, have four children, thirteen grandchildren and currently reside in Orange County, California.

Mr. Baldwin is actively involved in the community, and has served on numerous boards and charitable foundations, including chairman and board member of Futures for Children, a national children's charity; treasurer and board member for the Orange County Performing Arts Center; president of City of Hope Construction Industry Alliance; and Trustee of the Laguna Beach Art Museum. He is actively involved in the Catholic Church and is a member of Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of St. John of Jerusalem of Rhodes and of Malta.

The Baldwin family has been in the real estate development and home building business for three generations, building quality communities. Baldwin & Sons, Sunrise Construction, Pacific Coast Communities and Heritage Building & Development are home building companies owned and operated by Al Baldwin and his three sons. Their most recent community is the Otay Ranch in San Diego which will contain 10,000 homes upon its completion. Their communities have proven to be not only highly successful with the public, but extremely well received within the professional community as well, received numerous awards and recognition.

Mr. Baldwin has received numerous personal recognition/commendations such as The Los Angeles County Boy Scouts of America's Distinguished Citizen Award, Construction Industry Alliance City of Hope's Spirit of Life Award, Catholic Charities' Diocese of Orange Mardi Gras Honorees, American Jewish Committee's National Human Relations Award, and the Anti-Defamation League's Distinguished Community Service Award.